Professional experience

August 2013 - Present Arizona State University
History Instructor

With Arizona State University, I have had the pleasure of teaching a variety of courses including Immigration and Ethnicity, The American West in the 19th and 20th centuries, The American Presidency, Film as History, The Harlem Renaissance, and Contemporary US History.

July 2009 – July 2013 Hamilton High School
Social Studies Educator

With Hamilton High School, I have taught AVID, US Government, American, and World History at the 9th, 11th and 12th grade levels. As their teacher, I have focused on teaching students skills such as critical-thinking and strengthening their problem-solving skills.

August 2008 – June 2009 Fremont Junior High School
Social Studies Educator

With Fremont Junior High, I taught US and World History at the 7th and 9th grade levels, respectively. My focus is on providing my students with the necessary tools and skills not only to prepare them for success within my classroom, but the life skills and professionalism that they will carry with them throughout their lives.

July 2006-June 2008 United States Army
Military Intelligence Officer

As a soldier in the United States Army, I served in various positions. Most recently, I have served as a Company Level Executive Officer (XO). As an XO, I was responsible for the daily operations of the unit and accountable for 400 personnel.

September 2005-August 2006 Miller Grove High School
Social Sciences Educator

With Miller Grove High School, I taught a variety of courses in the field of Social Science. My focus was on implementing different approaches to convey my lessons to my students in order to ensure full understanding of the material presented. In addition to my teaching duties, I served as the Varsity Boys Head Soccer Coach where I taught the fundamentals of the sport, as well as leadership and responsibility.

May 2004-July 2005 Georgia Southern University
Upward Bound Instructor

With the Upward Bound program, I served as an instructor for the subjects of French, History, Current Events, and the Holocaust. In addition to instruction, it was also my responsibility to serve as a mentor and provide guidance for students when needed as they gained academic experience in a collegiate atmosphere.

August 2003- May 2005 Georgia Southern University
Graduate Assistant

As a graduate assistant, my duties included assisting Professors in my department by assisting or conducting lectures, exam preparation, and grade assessment. In addition to these duties, I was also responsible for interaction with students in order to prepare them for the class, maintaining office hours, planning assignments, and providing extra assistance for students, if necessary, to ensure that they were able to comprehend the material covered.
