ON-GOING RESEARCH

Ethnohistory and cultural dynamics among Lao Iu Mien in Oregon and California, USA. The project concerns farming, war, and social life in Laos ca. 1880-1975, and dynamics of culture and identity (sports, music, religion, beauty pageants, history, community organizations and religious groups) in a transnational context 1975-present.

Dynamics of culture, identity, and society among ethnic minority peoples in mainland Southeast Asia (focus on Thailand and Vietnam). The project involves particular attention to a) the public sphere and media – film, museums, encyclopedias, billboards, newspapers; b) new social forms – ethnicity associations, sports contests; and c) state
